Laundry

On Opening Day each camper will receive an Eisner Camp laundry bag. This bag will be picked up from camp once a week by a local, professional laundry service and returned to camp the next day. The entire contents of your camper's laundry bag are washed as one load in hot water. Please do not pack clothing that is not color-safe. Delicates, linen, wool, suede, and dry clean only items should not be sent to camp. Eisner is not responsible for missing or damaged clothing.

Label, Label, Label

We want our campers to return home with everything they brought to camp. Therefore, please LABEL, LABEL, LABEL! EVERYTHING that comes to camp must have your camper's full name (not initials) on it. Whether you sew the labels in, iron them on, use permanent marker or a stamp, you must label EVERYTHING.

One of the best labeling products we've seen are the peel and stick labels available from Label Daddy. You can buy them directly from the company.

Appropriate Attire

Please be sure to pack plenty of durable and comfortable clothing appropriate for a rustic camp setting. Campers spend most of their day outside; Eisner is a place where we play, perspire, and dance our hearts out. We try to create a wholesome environment that mirrors the values we attempt to instill in our campers. To create this sense of community, we ask campers and staff to dress in a way that is respectful both to themselves and others in the camp community. Clothing that allows underwear and/or bras to be visible should not be brought to camp and body parts that are customarily covered by undergarments should not be visible as well.

Please pack swimsuits that are functional for instructional swim – one-piece suits, tankinis, and shorts-style swimsuits are best. During free swim and pool parties, swimsuits should follow the same principles as clothing.

These guidelines are intended to promote the values of our camp and the self-esteem of our campers.

Campers are expected to dress appropriately for their activities. They must wear long pants for hiking, sneakers for sports, and swimsuits for swim.

Camp Swag

You can visit the online store on our website (or linked in the Packing List on our website) to buy cool Eisner clothing for your child. This is completely optional – though your camper would love it! (If your camper would like camp swag for the summer, please make sure to order by June 1 to guarantee delivery before camp starts.) While at camp, your camper will receive an Eisner Camp T-shirt.

Valuables

Campers are asked to leave all articles of value at home. Camp cannot assume responsibility for your child's belongings. There is no need for jewelry or expensive items at camp. Do not send any cash to camp – there is nothing to buy!
